Free-lance photographers and reporters will receive credentials only if actively working for an approved affiliation covering the Kitsap Stampede. Proof of assignment must be provided.

PRCA Photographers: A Media Credential Request Form must be submitted by PRCA photographers invited to attend the 2008 Kitsap Stampede. The Rodeo Committee will limit the number of PRCA photographer invitations to three in 2008.

Check-In: Badges are issued on a daily basis. Check-in is required each day at the Media Room. Parking passes will be issued upon arrival. Each individual requesting a credential badge must sign his/her own waiver form before badge is issued. Credentials cannot be issued in advance.

Dress Code

PRCA photographers: Long-sleeved, Western-style shirts, long pants or jeans and western boots or riding shoes. A cowboy hat is not required. TV and news outlet photographers and reporters: Closed-toe shoes or boots if shooting in the arena or behind the chutes; short or long -sleeved shirts (no sleeveless, tank or halter tops); long trousers or jeans preferred.

Rodeo officials reserve the right to refuse or revoke credentials if dress is deemed unsafe or inappropriate. Dress code is determined by the Kitsap Stampede Committee to promote safety and to avoid visual distraction.

Media Room Location: The Kitsap Stampede Media Room is in the secretary's office at the west end of the arena.

Media Room staff can assist you with arranging interviews and stories and will provide daily results and highlights in the media room and on www.tucsonrodeo.com. The Stampede Rodeo generates human interest and entertainment features as well as sports news. Please convey your interests to Frank Abbott for assistance.
